INTEND TRAVELLING EAST IN 2002 TO RACE ??

Well Don and Barbara Galbraith are offering assistance to interested riders – in the form of possible transporting of bikes, travel and support at the track.

The Galbraith's will be travelling by road to Eastern Creek on March 17th for the Fxtreme meet and March 24th for the World Supers support events.

CONTACT : Chris Galbraith a/hrs 9401 9249

Entry Forms and Supplementary Regs will be available for both Series on MA's website at <http://www.motorcyclingaustralia.org.au/> or www.formula-xtreme.com.au

WHO'S HEADING EAST IN 2002

John Donohoe will have a busy year contesting not only the WA state rounds, but both the national championships and the xtreme meetings.

Peter Taplin looks set to contest the 250GP class on a new bike with Michael Quante, Shane Smith, Chris Galbraith, Christof Henco, Tyron Marshall, Strett Cull and Malcolm Nanovich contesting various rounds.

REGRADING FOR 2002

Congratulations to the following riders who were regraded after the final state round.

To A Grade

#24 Strett Cull

#26 Michael Quante

To B Grade

#56 Wayne Smith

MA LICENCE FEE Increase

A $30 increase on all competition licences will apply for 2002 (rider insurance related). That takes the cost of a licence from $180 to $210.

Licence Renewal forms are being forwarded by MAWA shortly.

MAWA OFFICE BEARERS 2002

Les Thomas has been re elected as President. MAWA Road Race Committee nominations will be tabled at the February Council meeting.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

It is the Club's intention to set up a business directory of all members either self employed (or the company you work for) to promote their business and if you wish - offer a discount to club members on presentation of their membership card. The directory will be mailed to each member.

All you have to do is either mail or email us your business card or particulars along with any incentive offers and we will do the rest.

Email: mrcrwa@iinet.net.au or send to PO Box 116 Wanneroo 6946.

COMMITTEE INFO

The Executive committee will be setting up a Subcommittee to investigate possible future major national and or international events. The Committee will also focus on product developments, major event promotions and the development planning for future growth. Any seriously interested members are asked to contact Denise Stronach at the Office.

2002 OFFICE BEARERS

Congratulations to our elected members who have volunteered their time to support the Club next season. List enclosed.

If you have a query don't hesitate to introduce yourself and speak to these members.

FAREWELL TO MAY

May Makin finished up at the Club Office on Thursday 20th December after nearly 8 years of volunteer work for the Club. We wish her a happy retirement. THANK YOU MAY
