Calling For Volunteer Officials for 2008

Flag and Track Marshals, Scrutineers, Timing, Race Officials

Welcome to the 2008 road racing season. We write in the hope that you are available to participate as an Official for our events to be conducted at Barbagallo Raceway Wanneroo this year.

Enclosed you will find :

Registration form and Calendar of dates – please complete and return as soon as possible

Official's Duties – explanation on roles of various officials.

March 30th Race day is a “season warm-up” –

This will be an ideal opportunity to either refresh yourself or for new “officials” to learn what’s required before we head into the first State Championship round.

The first of 5 State Championship rounds gets under way on April 26th – 27th .

The opening round will be a two day event, qualifying and racing on Saturday with warm-ups and racing on the Sunday. Plenty of action with Superbikes, Supersports, Superstockers, Formula 2's, Sidecars and Juniors will also be a feature of the opening round.

All Officials will be provided with :

- Early morning tea/coffee, lunch and refreshments throughout the day.
- Free entry and a season's pass for those that participate regularly
- On the spot Training and accreditation courses (available thru Motorcycling WA)
- Cash prize raffles each round
- Free drink voucher for end of day bar
- Vest / Club cap or shirt/cap
- Monthly newsletter
- And a chance to be in the running for the “Flag Marshal of the Year Award” – Perpetual and replica Trophy presented end of season.

Uniforms: All Marshals will be provided with new high visibility vests & cap this season. Gloves (for trackside marshals) with sunscreen and ear plugs also available.

All other Officials will be provided with an “official's shirt and cap, sunscreen etc.

Season's Pass will be issued if you commit to the full season otherwise a free entry pass will be arranged for each day you attend.

Information and dates for Accreditation Courses are available at www.motorcyclingwa.org.au

We look forward to having you as part of the Team, and we invite you to join in, not only at the track but at our varied social events this season, but most of all enjoy the action on track – it's going to be another great racing season!
